

In today's Gospel, Jesus sends out the disciples to meet the needs of others. His admonition to them is the same challenge He makes to us: "The gift you have received, give as a gift."

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION WEEKEND

A WARM WELCOME TO OUR YOUNG PEOPLE MAKING THEIR FIRST HOLY COMMUNION...WE WELCOME YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS WHO COME TO HELP YOU CELEBRATE THIS MILESTONE IN YOUR LIFE.

J. R. R. TOLKIEN ON HOLY COMMUNION

The celebrated writer of 'The Lord of the Rings', J.R.R. Tolkien, was a deeply Catholic man. He and his younger brother Hilary were orphaned at a young age. Their mother, Mabel, passed away from diabetes in 1904, after which both brothers became wards of a Catholic priest, Fr Francis Xavier Morgan. Their mother appointed Fr Francis, a family friend, as their legal guardian. He served as a surrogate father and a major positive influence on their lives.

Many years later, Tolkien would write to his son Michael expressing his love for the Eucharist and the importance he placed on daily communion.

"Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament. . . . There you will find romance, glory, honour, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves on earth..."

"The only cure for sagging or fainting faith is Communion. Though always itself, perfect and complete and inviolate, the Blessed Sacrament does not operate completely and once for all in any of us. Like the act of Faith, it must be continuous and grow by exercise. Seven times a week is more nourishing than seven times at intervals."
